BLOOMINGTON, Ill. – County Farm Bureau leaders in the 95th House District serving as trustees for Illinois Farm Bureau ACTIVATOR® — the organization’s political action committee — are endorsing Rep. Tim Butler for re-election.

Butler was unanimously endorsed when county Farm Bureau leaders met to discuss his current voting record.

If elected, Butler would represent the 95th House District, which includes all or parts of Sangamon, Christian and Macon counties.

Butler was elected to serve in the 87th House District in 2015. During his four terms in office, he has advocated for Illinois Farm Bureau member interests by supporting legislation, such as a recent biofuels bill aimed at increasing biodiesel blend levels from B11 to B19. Butler also serves as the Assistant Republican Leader Representative, spokesperson for the Transportation: Vehicles & Safety Committee and Redistricting Committee, and sits on the Museums, Arts, & Cultural Enhancement Committee, Energy & Environment Committee and Counties & Townships Committee.

Illinois Farm Bureau ACTIVATOR® trustees are proud to call Butler a “friend of agriculture” because he has been a strong advocate for farmers and farm businesses.

The endorsement by Illinois Farm Bureau ACTIVATOR® places him in a group of select individuals in the state. They understand the leading role agriculture plays in the state's economy and the far-reaching benefits of its products. It proves he recognizes that agriculture’s benefits go beyond the vital function of feeding Illinois, the nation and the world.

ACTIVATOR®, Illinois Agricultural Association/Illinois Farm Bureau’s Political Involvement Fund, is a voluntary, non-profit, segregated fund promoting the economic and social well-being of farmers and helps to elect pro-farm candidates, no matter their party affiliations. ACTIVATOR® trustees are local Farm Bureau leaders appointed to evaluate candidates for endorsement.
